Send us instructions using PROMPT or email

PROMPT is our tool that allows you to scan and send us paper-based instructions direct. The tool will generate an email template, which will route the instruction precisely where it needs to go.

You can access the tool here quilter.com/Customer-Prompt or by visiting Quilter.com and searching for 'PROMPT'.

Alternatively, you can email your instruction to ask@quilter.com.

Any attachment you send must be a true and complete copy of either:

- the original document, or
- a certified copy of the original document which has not been tampered with.

Which instructions can be sent using PROMPT or email?

We have several Quilter forms that you can use to provide us with your instructions, available from www.quilter.com/documents.

Please check the instructions page for the form, which will tell you if it can be sent to us using PROMPT or email.

Examples of instructions you can provide in this way:

- Withdrawal/Account closure request
- Change of personal details
- Family linking request
- 'Expression of wish' instructions.
